Report

Apart from the academic curriculum of the students, the college has organized an industrial visit for the students to improve their practical knowledge to bridge the gap between curriculum and practical aspects of industry. The college encourages the Diploma students to visit the industry to "Premium Serums And Vaccines Pvt. Ltd" Narayangaon, Junnar, Pune. The college organized the visit to this centre for various detailed presentations about the role of pharmacist in industry, air conditioning system, water purification, animal house facility, and preparation of injectable.

The visit started at morning 10:00 am along with 65 students. We reached to "Premium Serums And Vaccines Pvt. Ltd" Narayangaon, Junnar, Pune. at 11:00 am. After reaching the industry, we had interaction with Mr. Salvi sir and Mr. More sir. The students and staff were extended a warm welcome by team members of "Premium Serums And Vaccines Pvt. Ltd". The students were divided into two groups and then were taken to different departments of industry like Raw material storage, Animal House, Water management area, formulation, clinical trial area, labelling, packaging, warehousing etc...,

A detailed explanation regarding each department was given by industry staff and their team members during the visit. They provided various information and knowledge about their animals used for trials of marketed venom products. This was followed by detailed presentation about the role of pharmacist in industry, air conditioning, water purification, and animal house, preparation of injectable etc..., At the end, we visited to animal house where they could see the actual air conditioning arrangement, water management and veterinary care for animals. The students also had an opportunity to observe the storage of injectable with special precautions. Overall, the visit was informative and memorable. To put it into a nutshell, they came to know about the role of pharmacist in the overall management of the Pharma Industry.
